Cluster news:

At this time we are not starting any new clusters. There have been requests for White Rock day time and evening clusters, but there are not enough members interested to get a group started.

If you would like to be in a cluster, please email me with your preferences, or fill out a cluster form at the next meeting.

If you are a member of a cluster but not attending, please reconsider your commitment to your smaller quilting support group.

Quilt Membership dues must be paid for 2008 before the Quilt Market if you are selling at market.

Block of the Month: October

The block of the month for October is the Jar Block. October starts a new year for block of the month. This year we will be using one common fabric in each block of the month. This fabric can be purchased for $1 each month at the monthly guild meeting or at Pandys's store.

The block of the month pattern will be included at the end of each newsletter for anyone who just wants to practice making blocks. Remember that if you want to submit your block at the guild meeting for a chance to win all of the blocks you will need to use the one prescribed fabric.

A message from Lynn Pruvost who has moved to Rio Rancho after being diagnosed with ALS, Lou Gehrig's Disease:

Dear Piecemakers,

I want to thank you all for 22 wonderful years of quilting classes, friends, ideas and inspiration. I will miss being at the meetings, staffing the shows, and all the marvelous activities that the Piecemakers have. Please keep me in your prayers.

Love, Lynn Pruvost

QUILT MARKET—OCTOBER 20, 2007, 10:00 a.m. 'til 3:00 p.m.

Quilt Market is going to be spectacular this year based on our challenge entries. We had 18 Oriental - themed entries that were all winners. The members at the September meeting voted on the three they liked best and the winners were First Place, Sue Friar, $30 gift certificate to Pandy's, Second Place, Judy Verzino, $25 gift certificate to Dunn Quilting, Third Place, Shirley Klosterbuer, $20 gift certificate to Brownell's Hallmark. About 40 of the Chinese Boxes were handed out so if any of you have finished your challenge, please bring it to sell at Market. All proceeds from the challenge will go directly to LAP as a money-raiser.

If you signed up to work at market, please honor your commitment. We depend on volunteers. Turn in your items to sell from 3:00-5:30 at the United Church on Friday, Oct. 19. The market opens at 10:00 A.M. on Saturday, Oct. 20 and ends at 3:00 P.M. Please have everything tagged properly. Your inventory sheet should already be turned in to the Market chairs .

Please feel free to call the co -chairs with any questions.

Co-Chairs are: Sue Friar, 672-1641, Debbie Ussery, 663-0071, Kay Eccleston, 424-3710

Community Service

We received an article that was in the Haysville Sun-Times about quilts (including ours) that were donated to the tornado victims in Greensburg, Kansas. (see article attached)

We also had several members give us quilts for donations. Judy Verzino gave us three quilts. Two of which I added to other baby quilts and gave to Hope Pregnancy Center (six quilts in all). The Queen Bee Cluster gave us a beautiful, colorful youth quilt. Evonne Holder and Joan Williams made three quilts and donated them to the injured soldiers through the IHM church and Cherie Trottier, Coordinator. Diane Johnson gave us two adult size quilts and one baby quilt that found its way to Hope Pregnancy Center.

Thanks to all of you for your generosity! !
