November 2012 Guild Meeting Tuesday, November 27th 7p.m. Los Alamos United Church

“There is no such thing as ugly fabric”

Why might you consider fabric ugly? The session will help you look at the color, the value, and the scale of the fabric and help you see it from a new perspective. Katy Korkos will lead us in this study of "ugly" fabric and how to put it to good use. Bring your "ugliest" fabric!

December 2012 No Meeting

January 2012 Guild Meeting Tuesday, January 22nd 7p.m. White Rock Baptist Church

“Valentine Embellishment & Leprechaun Challenge”

President's Report

Is it truly Thanksgiving? Where did this year go?

LAP has had a great year and we have much to be thankful for:

Awesome board members, they know their job and get it done.

Liz dazzled us with colorful entertaining and educational programs.

Jacque quietly documented our meetings for posterity.

Donna was magical with the finances. We are much healthier.

Linda for keeping us in the public eye.

Debbie McLin spread quilts made by members to others far and wide to the delight of both giver and receiver.

Marilyn and Deb Claytor made everyone feel welcome and "gifted". (Pun intended)

Deborah Kubicek's three hats - newsletter, website and mailing list master- kept us all well informed and added spice to our quilting.

Evonne and Judy inspired us with books that broaden our vision and skills.

Dennise motivated us to sell Donation Quilt tickets. We all wanted to be the lucky winner.

Libby and Brenda's leadership in holding a successful market that was the talk of the town.

I am extreme grateful to Lyn for carrying the entire leadership the last two months and her partnership this year.

The entire organization has seemed to take a deep breath, re-energize and reach out to be a welcoming community. The new board that will be elected this meeting is ready to make 2013 a huge success.

Members who graciously gave lectures and/or taught classes - Myrna, Micki and Liz.

I am looking forward to the November, program "There is no such thing as ugly fabric" by Katy Korkos. We all may feel better about our stash and some of those decisions we wonder about.

Thank you for giving Lyn and I your support this year.

Susan and Lyn

Treasurer's Report

The checking account balance on Nov 15 was $11,997.96.

Market expenses to be paid:

1. Claytor - piece was sold
2. missing items - 3 for a total of $21.95 (retail)
3. Gross Receipts Taxes of $1,185 - will be paid in December.

Membership

Membership numbers have remained the same as last month. We currently have 76 members in the guild. Debbie and I have enjoyed serving together for the membership position this past year for the guild. We would like to thank Nicole and Pat for taking over this position for the upcoming year of 2013. We hope to continue to bring new members into the Guild over this new year. We also appreciate all the donations to the prize bag this past year from so many of the guild members.

Thank You for your support!

2013 Donation Quilt

We really need someone, or a group of ladies (a cluster maybe) to step up and volunteer to take this on and start thinking about next year's donation quilt.

Community Service

The Los Alamos Piecemakers are preparing a holiday reception and "show and tell" program for the residents of Aspen Ridge on November 28 at 2:00p. We will present an array of cookies and treats and give each resident a handmade mug rug to kick off the holiday season.

We still need mug rugs so if you have the time before the next guild meeting, sew up some patches and cut to 6x10 or so and quilt and bind. We would love to have enough to gift every resident regardless if they come to the program or not. Our count for mug rugs needed for this event is 65 residents. You can bring your donation to the Guild meeting on Tuesday night or drop them off at Dunn Quilting before Tuesday night. Thanks to all members that will be attending this event. I will be e-mailing everyone who volunteered to remind them of the date shortly after Thanksgiving.

As the outgoing Community Service representative, I would like to thank everyone for their great support and participation this year. I hope you have a great holiday season and a fine fabric of a New Year!

Deborah McLin
