LOS ALAMOS PIECEMAKERS
OCTOBER 2014 QUILT GUILD MEETING
White Rock Baptist Church Tuesday, October 28 at 7 PM

Trunk Show and "Magic Transfer Fun"
Nicole Dunn, speaker

From the President:

CONGRATULATIONS to ALL! What a great quilt market! Kudos to all the quilt makers, the workers, and the buyers!

So fun that one of our own quilters won the Donation Quilt!

Congratulations to Joan Williams!

I hope you are considering whether you can step up and join this hard-working but fun Board of Directors! We all get so much out of being members of Los Alamos Piecemakers - help make it happen. Feel free to call or email me to get your first choice, or be ready for a call from the Nominating Committee!

Happy Quilting,
Laura

VICE PRESIDENTS REPORT - Deb Claytor and Deb McLin

We hope everybody has their roasted green chili packed and frozen and your fall plans for fun include sewing and quilting.

Many thanks to guild members who were able to attend our noontime potluck and bring such tasty lunch choices. Our October program presenter is a familiar face in the Guild. Nicole Dunn brings us a trunk show and a special activity to jump start your next creative activity. This activity might be a bit smelly so if you are sensitive to citrus cleaners bring a mask or handkerchief and we will also have a fan. If you have a wooden spoon, throw it into your bag as this is the only tool you'll need to make the "magic" happen. I can't wait. We will meet at the White Rock Baptist Church on Tuesday, October 28 at 7:00 PM.

This month the mug rug challenge is applique. The size is back to 6 x 9 with 1/2 " either way. We are presenting the mug rugs to the residents of Aspen Ridge during a "show and tell" event that was suggested by Phyllis Holland several years ago. We will have a date for that reception listed soon.

Our November meeting and workshop is scheduled a week earlier on November 18 and 19. We move it up because of the Thanksgiving holiday. We meet at the United Church in Los Alamos at 7:00 PM. We hope the sanctuary will be finished and we can have this evening meeting in Graves Hall. The program will be presented by Virginia Walton and on Wednesday the 19th she will present a workshop entitled "Whirlpool" using her curved rulers. We will present more information at the Guild meeting. If you are interested in the workshop flag Deb Claytor down at the White Rock meeting or check out Virginia's website.

I was hoping to have a summary of some of the answers to the survey questions that were turned in at the pot luck but there is such a wealth of information that I am going to need a little more time to get the information back out to our guild members. I may try to send it out as a separate message so look for a message from LAP later in the month. We hope to see you in White Rock for a fun night.

2014 QUILT MARKET - Micki Taylor and Libby Carlsten
