LOS ALAMOS PIECEMAKERS
United Church of Los Alamos
Tuesday, November 19 at 7:00 p.m.

President's Message:

Dear Quilters,
Boy has this gone by quickly. Not only are we having our last meeting of the year, but Thanksgiving and Christmas are upon us. We elect new officers at our next meeting, so I want to thank those that have served this past year, those that will continue this next year and those that are new in an office or committee. The organization could not exist without volunteers willing to serve. I would like to have an Executive board meeting before the normal guild meeting on the 19th. We will start at 6:00 p.m., United Church. Everyone is welcome. We will be discussing the status of the guild library, quilt show/market, speakers and possible change time of monthly meetings. Everyone remember to bring your UFO's, there is money to be had.

Yours in quilting,
Linda

OFFICER REPORTS

Secretary – Joan Williams

Minutes from LAP Guild Meeting 10/22/19 at the White Rock Presbyterian Church:

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. by Linda.

New members and guests were introduced: Celeste and Ralph.

Officer Reports:

Nothing from Secretary and Treasurer.

Librarian still open.

Committee Reports:

Nothing from Community Service, Newsletter, Publicity, and Webmaster.

Membership did door prizes. They were won by Linda, Deb, Sue and Becky.

UFO Challenge – There is 27 days left to complete projects. The pot is about $90. Bring your finished project to the November meeting (or if it’s been given away, bring a picture).

New Business:

Nomination committee report – Working hard and making lots of phone calls. Still need publicity, librarian, and market/show.

Show & Tell – Fall/Halloween

Micki had a Halloween quilt with pumpkins that glow in the dark.

Jackie showed an autumn wall hanging and Halloween quilts.

Nicole showed a skeleton quilt called Happy Halloween.

Show & Tell – Other Quilts

Donna showed a quilt of her dog-Riley. Also showed a hand painted skirt from the Canal Zone.

Laura showed a round robin quilt she worked with her cluster (5 participants). The guild will be proposing a round robin event next year.

Announcements:

The November meeting will be November 19th (a week early) at the United Church of Los Alamos.

Micki announced Nicole's quilt show at Mesa Library with the opening night on November 8th. The show will be there for the month of November.

Liz talked about an exhibit the Historical Society is putting together at Fuller Lodge and there will be a quilt included. She asked for any input from members with ideas on how to put together the quilt.

Program:

Deb introduced Judith Roderick an art quilter and silk painter from Placitas. Judith is a SAQA member with quilts in the Out of the Blue show that was at the State Capital in Santa Fe most of the summer. She also had her Sand Hill Quilt in the "Life Along the Rio Grande" show, another SAQA show that was at the Mesa Library.

In 1975 she moved to Alamogordo and made batik clothing. She is now mostly doing silk painting. Silk painting starts with white silk which she paints with resists/wax and then steam sets them. She also paints silk to make scarfs. She showed her three silk painting/quilts that were in the "Out of the Blue" show. She uses different embellishments on her quilts including buttons and sea shells she was given by her mother.

After her talk we all got to look at the quilts up close and ask questions.

The meeting was adjourned.

Treasurer – Donna Smith

Treasurer's Report

The Enterprise Bank checking account balance on Nov 1 was $11,947.45.

The proposed budget for 2020 will be sent by separate email and copies will be available at the Nov meeting.

Community Service – Flo Carr

Just want to send a big "thank you" to all of you who have given your fabric, money, effort, and most of all TIME to make the wonderful donation quilts this year. Of our current 16 most recent quilts, we've given 6 to the ATU at LAMC, 3 to Project Linus, and 4 to SANE (Sexual Abuse Nurse Examiners). I plan to distribute the 3 remaining by the end of the year. Thanks again! Flo
