LOS ALAMOS PIECEMAKERS

OFFICER REPORTS

Vice Presidents –

We're feeling more hopeful that things will return to a new normal in the next few months and that someday we'll be able to meet together in person again! Right now, the churches and libraries remain closed to groups.

We still have Suzi Parron scheduled for a presentation on "Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Trail Movement" in September and will continue to hope we can get together by then. Her workshop on "Barn Quilt Painting" looks especially fun. Three other speakers (Jenny Kay Parks, Debbie Maddy, and Michelle Watts) have rescheduled their visits to Los Alamos to 2022.

A first step in starting Piecemakers' meetings could be for our small group clusters to begin meeting again. This could be reasonably safe in homes (if members are vaccinated) or on porches this spring and summer. Each group should discuss what their members are comfortable with and decide on any restrictions/guidelines they want to follow.

If your group does begin meeting again, please let us know what your group is doing so that we can share information between groups. Also let us know if your group is accepting new members. (Send this information to melodie.gustavsen@gmail.com) If you are a member who would like to join a group, also contact Melodie.

Our Star Gazers' Exchange group continues each month with the next exchange on April 27. If you'd like more information on joining this group, please email Melodie (melodie.gustavsen@gmail.com).

Stay safe. Keep quilting. We hope to see you soon.
