Bring your checkbook to sign up for the September workshop of Barn Quilt Painting with Suzi Parron.

Now, to our health. We will be following NM and CDC guidelines for in-person meetings. We are required to wear mask indoors whether we have been vaccinated or not, so REMEMBER YOUR MASK.

I look forward to seeing everyone and if I do not recognize you with a mask on we may have to introduce ourselves to everyone again.

Yours in quilting,

VICE PRESIDENTS –

From Clara Vigil

August 24 - Show 'N Tell

Time: 7:00 p.m.

Place: White Rock Presbyterian Church, 310 Rover Blvd.310 Rover Blvd

We're excited to start meeting again!! I'm sure everyone has much to share and stories to tell. Please bring a quilting item or two (up to 5) to share at our August meeting that helped maintain your sanity during the Pandemic.

Star Gazers Exchange

We will move to exchanging in person at the August meeting. Eleven members of this group are in their sixth round and are producing some beautiful stars.

Medallion Challenge

At the beginning of 2020, we began an individual medallion challenge for members who wanted to create a medallion quilt on their own. If you completed a medallion quilt, please let Clara or Melodie know (So we can have the right number of prizes ready). Then bring your finished quilts to the August meeting. We look forward to seeing your creativity.

Round Robin Medallion Quilts

Those members who joined the 2020 Round Robin Medallion should also bring quilts to show the group at the August meeting.

September 28 - Suzi Parron, speaker and quilt barn artist.

Suzi's lecture will include over one hundred stunning photographs of barn quilts across the nation. "My talk will take you on a journey along the quilt trail, beginning with the very first barn quilt, which stemmed from Donna Sue Groves and her wish to honor her mother's quilting art." Celebration:

It was nice to see so many of our Guild members being recognized for their creativity and hard work at this year's Los Alamos County Fair. There were so many beautiful and inspirational quilts. I am pleased to announce that our own Melodie Gustavsen received the "Best of the Best Award." Congratulations, Melodie!!
